GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Horseman has become extremely oracular on the thoroughbred side of turf affairs of late. It is naturally most incorrect too. In the current number, the Royal Nettie steal at New Orleans is wisely discussed as "a magnificent coup and wire tapping fraud." There was nothing magnificent about it, of course, no wires were tapped, and instead of $250,000, the total plunder of the thieves was less than $25,000 in amount. There's news and news.

The same misguided journal comments, too, on my liking for Vincitor at the weights for the Brooklyn Handicap, and says: "The man who tipped Vincitor as a good thing for the Brooklyn Handicap must feel rather sore about this time. The horse is to be sent to his owner's farm, there to stay." Why sore? Horses come and go, and if Vincitor isn't a starter, none but Vincitor and Vincitor's owner are deeply affected. It isn't by any means certain, however, that the colt goes to Elmwood. That is a statement made on rumor, and may be of the same class of news as the "$250,000 wire tapping coup."

Then again, the same editorial eye and idea is turned on the point of the cost of yearling production. I wrote some time ago in The News, that one of home Kentucky product could be marketed at Cincinnati for about $65. The figures, actually from the books of a close and intelligent breeder are $66.50. This sum does not include investment. This, at 5 per cent, on $20,000, with a production of 30 yearlings, would make the total price $100. After a wordy preamble, in which original lines are entirely buried. The Horseman uncovers a western breeder who raises youngsters for $300 each. Among the items are: service fee, $100; shipping mare, $25. They are not legitimate in home produce. Such a term applies to a youngster bred at a farm owning its dam and sire. Our farm, too, raises its own provender, and does not spend $160 a year for feeding the mare and her produce. It is useless, however, to continue a discussion when one of the parties thereto hasn't got his eye on the gun.

The North Western Breeders Association is in healthy lines nowadays. It, with some of the other leading harness racing organizations of the state, are at work on the foundation of a body which is to further the passage of an equitable racing bill at the next session of the Illinois legislature.

J. H. Brunell

NO HEAVY CHAMPION FIGHTER.

Who is the heavy-weight champion glove fighter of America? At first sight the answer looks easy, but is not. The more a man knows about fighters the less he knows about this. Robert Fitzsimmons claims it by virtue of whipping Maher—and, for that matter, claims every class honor from 150 pounds up—but, so far as the heavy-weight distinction goes, he can not own it till he has defeated a bona fide heavy-weight champion. Peter Maher was not such a one. I have no personal prejudice in the matter. Had Maher won over Fitzsimmons the same story would apply to him, and, indeed, Peter himself regarded it that way. He was in Chicago a short time before going to Texas to take up his training for Fitz and on that occasion I asked him if he considered himself the champion because Corbett had pronounced him so at the time of his knockout of Steve O'Donnell.

"I do not," replied he. "No boxer can give such a title away. I want to fight Fitzsimmons because he won over me once, and if I can get back at him in this meeting, my idea is to challenge Jim Corbett for the honor; if then, Corbett refuses to meet me I will claim and consider myself the heavy-weight champion through default from him and be ready to meet any man in the world to defend it."

Thus, in whipping Maher, Fitz won from a man who did not claim to be rightful heavy-weight champion, but only an aspirant for the title, to reach which he desired to meet Fitz in order to try to wipe out an old defeat and then Jim Corbett.

"This is not saying, however, that Corbett is still the champion; clearly he is not. Upon the defeat of his former sparring partner, Steve O'Donnell, by Peter Maher he renounced all claim to it, putting himself on record that he had permanently retired. One has a right to retire from anything, but when it comes to appointing a successor, particularly in such a matter as this, the big public is the one to pass on it. Now the public, it will be recalled, at the time of the gift by Corbett to Maher, did not fall into line; they scoffed.

In my opinion, in the present state of affairs, there is no heavy-weight champion, the crown hovering between Fitzsimmons and Corbett, and no one can say who is rightful owner till they have met and finished. The public—always the judges in these matters—has hungered to see a go between Corbett and Fitzsimmons ever since Peter Jackson has dissipated out of pugilism. At first it looked as though Corbett was to blame for no meeting between them; but the Californian was making lots of money when the go was first broached and he claimed to know that Fitz would back out at the last moment; this, however wild it appeared at first, proved to be the case when Fitz ran into the hands of the sheriff on his journey to Hot Springs, where Corbett was waiting for him in hiding.

Fitz appears to have been as much afraid of Jim as he was once afraid of Peter Jackson and Paddy Slavin, and if he makes much further show of this and refuses to sign for a meeting with Corbett, the latter will soon be looked on as the champion of the heavyweights once again.

CHORN, CHEVALIER CO., LANDED.

BAY DISTRICT TRACK, SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March, 27.—For conspiracy in combining to place horses and fraud. Jockeys Chorn and Chevalier, and the Chinaman, Little Pete, were ruled off to-day, and Dow Williams was warned off and Heinrichs barred from riding. For a bad ride on Cabrillo, Coady was indefinitely suspended.

The entries of A. G. Blakely and Tom Griffin have been refused because of a cloudy transfer of Fair Faith and the latters' speed reversal.

T. W. Coulter's Estimate.
Tully Coulter, a good sportsman and racing man of knowledge and high class says: "I want DAILY RACING FORM as soon as I can get it in the morning. It is my ideal on information about racing. No daily newspaper ever covered the sport so completely and correctly."

WOODLANDS STUD

15 MILES FROM ST LOUIS ON THE WABASH

BARNEY SCHREIBER'S MODEL FARM.

THE CHOICEST OF AUSTRALIAN BLOOD.

FOUL SHOT BY MUSKET -SLANDER.

MUSKET is the sire of Carbine, Trenton, Nordenfeld, Currassier, Brigadier, Maxim, Martini-Henry, etc. Slander, was the winner of seventy-five races at all distances, carrying as high as 145 pounds, by Camden, out of Annie Laurie (a famous race mare and producer). Capapie, the sire of the latter, was the grandsire of Yattendon. Foulshot himself was a great race horse. He won the Northern Derby in New Zealand in the fastest time it has ever been run in, and the same afternoon won at two miles from twenty-six starters. He has been a phenomenal success as a sire. Last year he had nineteen representatives on the turf, twelve of which were winners, and all the others inside the money. Foul Shot will come east in May and take his place at Woodlands, after serving a few of the most select California mares, including Janet N., the dam of Crescendo, Bellicoso and Dolce.
